

JASCO FILM VIEWING OF

“SUGIHARA: CONSPIRACY OF KINDNESS”

Thursday, December 4, 2014 - 5:30pm-8:30pm

at Bexley Public Library (2411 E. Main St. Columbus, Oh 43209)

In partnership with the Japanese Student Organization and the Jewish Student Organization from the The Ohio State University, JASCO will be showing “Sugihara: Conspiracy of Kindness” at the Bexley Public Library (2411 E Main St, Columbus, OH 43209) on Thursday, December 4th, 2014.

The film tells the tale of Chiune Sugihara, a Japanese diplomat who put his life and career at risk to save the lives of over 6,000 Jewish refugees during World War II by permitting them entry to Japan.

Following the showing, there will be a discussion led by Harlan Schottenstein on the subject. Mr. Schottenstein is an award-winning educator, currently serving at Franklin University, instructing subjects on global issues, diversity in society, popular culture and film appreciation. Mr. Schottenstein also serves as the President of the Discovery District Civic Association, the cultural and educational district of downtown Columbus.

The film viewing is an 18+ event, so please plan accordingly. Visit JASCO’s website to RSVP and find more details (www.jas-co.org)
